Little Bighorn Battlefield National Monument

News Release

Release Date: December 22, 2014

Little Bighorn Battlefield National Monument

Closure Announced for December 25, 26 and January 1

Little Bighorn Battlefield will be closed for Christmas on Thursday, December 25 and Friday, December 26, 2014. We will also be closed on January 1, 2015 for New Year's Day. This allows our employees the opportunity to spend important holiday time with their families. Superintendent Denice Swanke and the park staff wish everyone a great holiday season!

Winter hours are still in effect. Both the visitor center and Custer National Cemetery are open from 8:00 AM to 4:30 PM daily. The 25 minute orientation film titled "Triumph and Tragedy Along the Little Bighorn" is shown in the visitor center upon request. The tour road may close temporarily when winter weather conditions prohibit safe travel, especially beyond the Calhoun Hill area.

Entrance fees are $10.00 per vehicle and $5.00 per person for pedestrians, bicycles and motorcycles. The interagency annual pass, senior pass, and the free access pass for U.S. permanently handicapped citizens are also available. Federal recreation passports and the interagency annual pass are great Christmas presents! These items are available in person at our visitor center. For more information about annual passes and how you can obtain them by phone or online see <http://www.nps.gov/findapark/passes.htm>.

Little Bighorn Battlefield National Monument, a unit of the National Park Service, administers the site of one of the most famous battles in American history, the Battle of the Little Bighorn.
